

Plant, Soil & Environment: Systems Seminar

Monday Oct 10, 2016

12:00-1:00 pm

Agronomy Laboratory 2 (W023_1.27)

TITLE

Organic Farming in Bangladesh - Status, Issues and Challenges

By

Dr Khurshid Alam

The economy of Bangladesh is mainly governed by agriculture. Organic Farming is gradually increasing in Bangladesh in particular through efforts of NGO's and private entrepreneurs. This presentation will give a brief idea about the present status of organic farming in Bangladesh with respect to production, trade, research and development as well as governmental intervention to promote organic farming.